(St. Louis – January 27, 2010) – RuralBounty.com, the North American Directory of Agritourism Farms and Ranches, will now provide free listings to all agritourism farms in the United States and Canada. Premium listings are also available for just $45.00 annually. We encourage all agritourism operators to take advantage of this valuable new resource.

Rural Bounty is designed to assist the public in locating farm fresh fruits and vegetables, activities, entertainment, attractions, lodging, family events and festivals. It's a powerful one-source directory that will make it easy for people to locate agritourism operators no matter where they may live.

Each new member has an opportunity to select from more than 500 products, activities and services that describe their business. Every member's page will provide their address, phone number, email address, and a link to their website, if they have one. If they don't have a website, this will give the farm a web presence.

Each member has a full web page listing, along with a short narrative describing their business. Members may update their information online at any time. It's easy to register and it's all done online at RuralBounty.com or RuralBounty.ca under the link - List Your Farm.

Listings on RuralBounty.com are available to all businesses with a rural base, including farms, ranches, wineries, farmers' markets, bed and breakfasts, CSA programs, organic farms, farm stands and market, rural lodging and outdoor sports such as hunting lodges and cross country ski lodges. For more information, visit www.RuralBounty.com or call 314-862-6288.
